Greetings Bogggers,

The first two-thirds of summer have been filled with fabulous events. The Axes, Arrows and A&S event in June was an emotional yet fulfilling day. Many thanks to Kenn, Katya, and the rest of the Metal Flingers for planning such a memorable day. It was a great reminder of how much we are a family.

Bog Three Day – Sommerfrische was yet again an amazing weekend. Year after year we come together and ensure that our visitors are leaving as new-found friends. Many times people have stopped us and said that the Bog is like a second home to them. The true treasure of the Bog lies in the hearts of it's people. Nothing warms our hearts more than witnessing the hospitality you provide. There are so many to thank – Ursula for once again autocratting a flawless event. Alric and Katherine for providing a feast that was beyond measure. Lodovic and his family for tirelessly spending hours in the kitchen assisting the feastocrats. Osa for helping everywhere she was needed including those moments of levity. Arvik, Kenn, Emily, and Guillaume for organizing the martial activities. Viv and Kiwi for being the best heralds anyone could ask for. Cynthia, our scribal mistress, for making sure all our award recipients had incredible works of art. For everyone who sat troll, helped clean up, serve, set up/tear down and make our guest welcome. We have an incredible group and we are so proud of all of you.

The last stretch of summer is coming and Pennsic looms ahead of us. With the fun of Lodovic's elevation, Gobi nights, and the revelry of war, we have other obligations that also must be met. We will need accompaniment for Opening Ceremonies/ Kingdom Court and guards for Aethelmearc Royal. We wish to join in as many activities with you as we can. We are here to support you. Please feel free to share with us the activities that are important to you. We know it is a busy time for all and hope that we can all find the balance between work and play. So play hard, stay hydrated, and GO BOG!

In Service

Baron Iago and Baroness Emilia.

Thank You From the Axes, Arrows and A&S, Bog Spring Fling Picnic Autocrat

Ok, I am going to try and thank everybody for their help at Spring Fling on Saturday.

First I must thank my lovely wife for her ideas and support. She also did a great job going around and making sure everyone was having a good time. She was also a first class teamster driving that rig around and backing it up in the driveways and parking lots. Rosheen did an awesome job with organizing the food and cooking that ham over the coals. She was also in charge of the hall and made sure it looked like we had never been there when it was time to leave.

Thanks to Ian, Gunther, Rosheen, Arvik, Elizabeth, Aelfra, Aquilla, Lewis, Baron Iago and everyone else who helped with the insane task of hauling in, setting up, and hauling out 15 thrown weapons stands and butts and a full archery range. You guys were very brave when we encountered those scary clowns at the Tavern on Friday night. Also thanks to Ian, Gunther and Tim for marshalling since I couldn't be everywhere at once.

Thanks to Roxanne, Caroline and Guillaume for jumping in to run the troll and keep track of the money we collected. Special thanks to Roxie for raising the most money.

The scribes did fantastic work on the scrolls as usual. Thank you Mistress Cynthia for acting as my MOL. Dame Viv, you were a most excellent Herald. Thank you to Baron Iago for giving your Bog Martial Badge to Adam's family. You and Baroness Bubba did a great job with the court and making Adam's family feel that they are part of the Bog family.

Thank you to Adam's family for coming to share the day with us. It was an honor for us to have you there.

Keith you took many awesome photos and thanks for sharing them with us. Lewis, you were attending your first event and had no problem just jumping in and making yourself useful. Also many thanks to Chris. I heard nothing but praise for how you helped with the kitchen. Thank you to Caitlyn for your wonderful bread and the incidental music you provided during court.

Many, many thanks to everyone who shared their wonderful food with us. It continues the tradition that if you went away hungry from a Bog event, it was your own damn fault.

Thank you to everyone who participated in both tourneys and to everyone who made a donation in Adam's memory. We raised over $900!!

I have to also say how proud I am of my grandson, Bradley the Mohawkian. These were the first two real tournaments he participated in and he did great! He has been waiting 3 years to do that Cutlery Challenge! My little buddy Wes the Weasel also had a great time at his first event. Thanks to Gram for coming with to keep an eye on the kids.

Thank you to all the Boggers who were able to attend and also our friends from out of the area. I hope you all had fun because that is what it is all about. I am sure I forgot to thank someone so if I did, slap me upside the head and remind me the next time you see me.

With enormous gratitude,

Kenn

Barony's Three Day: Sommerfrische Event

Kartoffelkloesse (german Potato Dumplings)

Prep Time: 20 mins Total Time: 40 mins

Serves: 6, Yield: 12 dumplings

Ingredients

1 1/2 lbs russet potatoes ( about 2 large)

1 1/2 teaspoons salt

1/8 teaspoon ground nutmeg

1 cup all-purpose flour ( or more)

1/8 cup cornstarch ( or potato starch, much preferred, if you can get it)

1 large egg

2 slices sourdough bread or 2 slices white bread ( good quality, not supermarket foam crap)

1 tablespoon unsalted butter

1 tablespoon corn oil or 1 tablespoon vegetable oil

Directions

Trim crusts off bread and save them for another use.

Cut bread into 1/2-inch cubes and fry in butter and oil mixture until golden brown, transfer to paper towel to dry.

Cook scrubbed, unpeeled potatoes in large pot of boiling salted water until tender, about 45 minutes.

Drain. Cool slightly. Peel. Cut potatoes into large pieces.

Refrigerate until cold, about 30 minutes.

Mash potatoes with fork or run through ricer into large bowl.

Mix in salt and nutmeg.

Add flour and cornstarch.

Using hands, knead mixture in bowl until smooth dough forms, adding more flour by tablespoonfuls if dough is sticky.

Mix in egg. Form dough into balls, using 1/4 cupful for each.

Insert bread cube into center of each dumpling; roll dumpling between palms to enclose bread cube completely and form smooth balls.

Working in batches, cook dumplings in large pot of nearly boiling salted water 10-15 minutes (or until dumplings rise to top).

Using slotted spoon, transfer dumplings to large bowl.

Keep covered with a damp kitchen towel as remaining dumplings are cooked.

You should place no more than 4-5 dumplings in your pot at any one time in order to prevent them from sticking together or touching during cooking, which will cause them to fall apart.

From Dona Katherine Vivans , Feastocrat

Thank You From the Barony's Three Day: Sommerfrische Autocrat

Well, another Three Day is in the books and I have a long list of gentles to thank and attribute the success of Bog Three Day: Sommerfrische:

To His Royal Majesty for attending, it was a joy to have You visit our Barony!

To Dona Emily of Dunvegan for being my co-autocrat, fencing marshal, sounding board and friend. Thanks for always being there and for all of your hard work that you put into the event!

To Dona Katherine Vivans for planning, preparing, serving, and creating a culinary cabaret from scratch for the event! You, Sir Alric and the rest of your staff worked hard and provided a weekend of food that left no one crying for more (they were all too full). I've gotten much feedback on the execution of feast and it's all been positive. I know first-hand the time, dedication and care that were put into the food for this weekend and am in awe of it. It was a joy to work with you and I look forward to working with you again in the future!

To our Baron and Baroness, Iago & Emilia, for the use of your pavilion(s) and for all of your help and support through the entire event process. You both are great hosts and truly embody the vision of hospitality that the Bog is known for.

To Lord Guillume le Noir for being my Marshal In Charge and to Dona Emily, THLord Kenn and Lord Arvik for keeping their respective areas running safely and well ahead of schedule leaving plenty of time for all the melee and pickups anyone could handle in the afternoon! Thanks too to everyone who helped marshal throughout the day, Duchess Dorinda, Don Orlando, and everyone else who ran tournaments, authorizations and sent everyone home tired! A very special thank you to His Excellency Tadgh and Duke Matthew for allowing the Barony to host a leg of the AE500 and traveling so far to run it.

To Lord Batista di Lupo Speranza for taking reservations, and being Head Tolner!

To Lady Aemilia Soteria for volunteering to travel from far away to MOL our event, for running a clean tournament, and for being a pleasure to work with. And to Countess Rosalinda for bringing her :)

To The Honorable Lady Caitilin ni Maolchonaire for keeping up with the website and all of my changes and updates to it. And for jumping in when I needed her most and only asking for a hug in return!

To Don Anias Fenn for designing and stamping our wonderful site tokens for the fourth year in a row. And for meeting me when I forgot them!

To Her Excellency Osa of the Green Land for helping out in the kitchen all weekend, bringing her pavilion to share with me so I had a place to sleep and for making me laugh at every opportunity, you are truly a great friend and a treasure!

To Her Excellency, Dame Vivienne Marie de Beauvais, for cutting cattails on the side of the road, for building our AMAZING Shrine to our Patron Saint Swithin and for keeping it going year after year. I firmly believe that our Shrine and offerings inspired St. Swithin to bless us with the gorgeous weather that we had yet again this year!

To those who participated in Ironscribe. We had six great participants, one of which completed her first scroll EVER in the competition. Congratulations to Lady Ailionora for winning and thank you to Duchess Dorinda, Mistress AElfra and Their Excellencies Iago and Emilia for serving as judges.

To Lady Rosheen and Lord Gunther who did lots behind the scenes, including putting away about a million chairs after feast. And to Lord Gunther for leaving site to put up signs, and to Lord Arvik for taking the signs down afterwards.

Lastly thanks to everyone who helped put up or take down a pavilion or fly, sat troll, carried a chair or table, washed a dish, picked up trash, retained, talked to a new person on behalf of our awesome group, wore our beloved Barony's colors or German garb or just showed up to add to the theme for the day – thank you, thank you, THANK YOU!

I had a great weekend and hope you all did to. If I missed someone please let me know so that I can correct this missive.

I remain yours in friendship and in service,

Ursula
